1. Introduction

- Regulation 30(4) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (the 'Listing Regulations') requires every listed entity to frame a policy for determination of materiality of events and information that requires appropriate disclosure to the stock exchanges. Further, such disclosures are required to be hosted on the website of the listed entity for a minimum period of 5 years and thereafter as per its Archival Policy.
- Accordingly, Parle Industries Limited ('the Company') herein sets out a Policy for determination of materiality of events and information and disclosure thereof (hereinafter referred to the 'Policy').

2. Scope

- This Policy sets out the criteria for determining materiality of an event.

3. Policy

- Materiality has to be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information/event. In order to determine whether a particular event/information is material in nature, the Company shall consider the criteria(s) mentioned below:
 - the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
 - the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
 - the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - ✓ two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
